Conclusion

Alternative 1 – Focus on clients that use the same core app

Decision criteria		Detail
Time to get mainstream	=	Standardize your app to common needs of your clients. Focus on hospitality, retail, manufacturing. Competence against well established competitors with standard products: ex. WhatsApp
Increase revenue	✓	Decrease costs of personalization.
Growth in clients	✗	Slow growth in the number of costumers because they have different needs and contexts.
Aligned with core values	✗	You are not being BRAVE: You don't let the fear of failure limit you

Alternative 2 – Split in different business units – one per vertical

Decision criteria		Detail
Time to get mainstream	✗	Long process - you should build brand awareness with new brands.
Increase revenue	✗	Heavy in investment to split each department
Growth in clients	✓	Offer them specialized app so you could attack better they needs
Aligned with core values	✗	Splitting your company

Alternative 3 – Beachhead on hotel chains and expand to other sectors on the same value chain

Decision criteria		Detail
Time to get mainstream	✓	Offering specialized app to hotels is more probably to gain foothold onto the sector. Mouth to Mouth communication fast growth in the same sector.
Increase revenue	✓	Becoming experts in one sector allow you replicate the experience in different hotel chains. High number of headcounts.
Growth in clients	✓	Event Driven Architecture allows you quick expansion. There are a lot of companies in the value chain – airlines, food, laundry, cleaning.
Aligned with core values	✓	BEE BRAVE - KIS - BEE PROACTIVES
